IN MEMORIAM

DAVID OVERSTREET

(September 20, 1958 - June 24, 1984)

For the third time in three years, the Miami Dolphins lost an important member of their football family. Last June 24, running back David Overstreet was killed in an automobile accident in Winona, Texas while traveling to his hometown in nearby Big Sandy. David had been the Dolphins' number one draft choice in 1981, and had displayed his outstanding talent in his Miami debut season of 1983. That the life of another Dolphin player has been senselessly taken is a tragedy to be mourned by those who knew David or who appreciated his unique abilities.

This book and the Dolphins' 1984 season is dedicated to the fond memory of David Overstreet.

JOSEPH ROBBIE

PRESIDENT

Two decades ago, Joseph Robbie vigorously pursued a dream of championship-caliber professional football in Miami. The phenomenal accomplishments of his Miami Dolphins are now engraved in two Super Bowl trophies and ingrained in the history of the sport.

With equal foresight and perseverance, the Joseph Robbie of the 1980s envisions a much larger "trophy" made of steel, concrete and glass. His dream is a luxury 73,000-seat stadium, built with private funds.

"If the civic, corporate, and governmental leaders of this area, backed by the rank and file of our population, help us to market the executive suites and club seats of the new stadium," Robbie says, "together we will erect a monument to regional and civic unification of energy and effort."

Anyone familiar with Robbie's success in meeting challenges could be tempted to bet a fascinating quinnella — another Super Bowl crown, and a new showcase for it in 1987.

Robbie already has orchestrated one of the most remarkable sagas in the National Football League. None of the hardships of building a champion from scratch have deterred Robbie since he took his first determined step 19 years ago. Robbie brings that same tenacity to the stadium project.

"Firmness of purpose," Lord Chesterfield wrote, "is one of the most necessary sinews of character, and one of the best instruments of success. Without it, genius wastes its efforts in a maze of inconsistencies."

Robbie epitomizes this firm pursuit.

The NFL has burgeoned by 16 teams since 1970, and Robbie's Dolphins represent the only club among those modern-day newcomers to win consecutive league championships. The goal of NFL superiority was reached by the Dolphins in only seven years — far sooner than consistent winners such as the Dallas Cowboys (12 years) and the Los Angeles Raiders (17 years).

And the Dolphins did more than just win the NFL crown. They bejeweled it with 17 perfect stones. An unprecedented record of 17-0 that 1972 season brought the Super Bowl title to Miami, and then the Dolphins repeated as champions with a two-year record of 32-2.

Robbie, 68, enters the 1984 season with no less of an insatiable demand for excellence. As president and managing general partner, he administers a franchise that has compiled a winning percentage of .700 in the 14 years since merging the American Football League with the older NFL. Only two other clubs have won 70 percent of their games since 1970, and the Dolphins have the distinction of winning three straight conference titles.

Robbie, a former South Dakota legislator and Minneapolis lawyer, parlayed cunning and persistence into shaping a franchise that has reached the playoffs 10 times in the last 14 seasons and qualified for the Super Bowl four times.

His genius was manifested when he gave Don Shula the head coaching responsibility Feb. 18, 1970. In the years which have followed, every NFL team except Dallas and Pittsburgh has changed coaches, but none of the more than 100 moves has topped Robbie's selection. And the Robbie-Shula alliance was renewed in 1983 extending through the 1986 season.

Of all the plaudits accompanying the ascent of the Dolphins, none fit Robbie's persevering character more suitably than the Horatio Alger Award given him in 1979. It is an honor bestowed on giants of the free enterprise system as well as U.S. presidents in recognition of outstanding careers developed through "personal effort out of hardship."

"If I were asked to name the award that I would cherish most of any I know about," Robbie said in acceptance, "it would be this one. This to me represents struggle and achievement, and through my life, it has always been my opinion that the struggle itself is equally important and rewarding as the ultimate achievement."

Robbie had to overcome a virtual embargo on pro football imposed by the Orange Bowl Committee and the University of Miami as well as adverse sentiment among AFL owners who preferred Atlanta for 1966 expansion.

In 1965, a client Robbie met on a Florida vacation was interested in an AFL expansion franchise for Philadelphia. Robbie inquired of AFL Commissioner Joe Foss, a classmate of Robbie's at the University of South Dakota and a colleague in the state legislature.

"He (Foss) told me the stadium was in litigation in Philadelphia," Robbie recalls. "He said there would be a good chance of getting a team for Miami, but not for Philadelphia."

"I told my client, and he wasn't interested in Miami. So I decided to apply for the franchise there. The rest is history."

Robbie contacted entertainer Danny Thomas, whom he had known since 1969 while serving on the Board of Directors of St. Jude's Hospital in Memphis. That Lebanese coalition then filed a formal application and was awarded an AFL franchise for a $7.5-million fee.

The unavoidable setbacks for an expansion club never intimidated Robbie. The stadium was two-thirds empty in those first two years when the Dolphins averaged only 25,551 and 27,120 tickets sold.

A four-year ledger reads 15 wins in 56 games, a paid average of 28,742 at the ticket counter for 28 games, and off the field, one member of the limited partnership had secretly negotiated a franchise move to Seattle. Robbie swiftly recruited five Miami investors to buy the substantial share held by the recalcitrant partner, and thus the Dolphins became rooted more deeply in Miami.

Robbie had survived the financial maelstrom, and he still searched for a winner. South Florida had indicated its readiness for pro football when an AFL-record crowd of 68,125 filled the Orange Bowl for a 1968 preseason game with NFL power Baltimore. The Dolphins had drafted Griese, Csonka and Morris and had traded for Buoniconti, Little and Warfield. On-field leadership was the missing element.

Robbie found it when he summoned Shula. Immediately in 1970, the Dolphins were transformed from 3-10-1 underachievers to 10-4 playoff qualifiers. Robbie's faith in once-apathetic South Florida was rewarded with fanatical support. There was an NFL-record 74,961 season tickets in 1973 on the way to 22 consecutive sellouts while the Dolphins made history with Super Bowl triumphs over Washington and Minnesota.

"Despite past differences, South Florida owes a lot to Joe Robbie," Miami Herald publisher Dick Capen wrote in June 1984. "After all, it was he who took substantial risks in the early years and parlayed an expansion franchise in the old American Football League into one of the top operations in major-league sports. It also was Joe Robbie who recruited Don Shula, one of pro football's most admired coaches. We are a better community today because he brought the Dolphins here in 1966."

Robbie had been obsessed with the goal of a championship team, as the prolific Pulitzer Prize-winning author James A. Michener described it in "Sports in America." Michener wrote:

"The majority of owners I have met are like Joe Robbie of Miami, real devotees, men and women to whom the building of a respectable team becomes a passion, and they add luster to the sporting scene. . . . In the end, they are willing to make extraordinary sacrifices in order to build a winner, and their loyalty to their team often exceeds that of their players."

The Dolphins, through Robbie's adroit management, have directed some $2 million to charitable organizations in the community that supports them. Robbie also involves himself personally in many civic endeavors. He is currently serving on the Public Health Trust for Jackson Memorial Hospital, and he has worked actively on the Board of Trustees for United Way and served as president of Catholic Charities for three years.

He also serves on the National Board of Directors of the American Health Foundation and the U.S.O. Other past services by Robbie include the Board of Governors of the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce, the Boards of Directors for Boystown, Crippled Children's Society, Heart Association, Variety Children's Hospital and Operation Self-Help Inc., and the Board of Governors as executive vice chairman of the St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital.

His managerial ability is recognized by NFL colleagues when twice he has been elected to serve on the six-member Executive Committee of the NFL Management Council, and he was chairman of the AFL Player Relations Committee.

In 1983, he was re-elected chairman of the Board of Trustees for the Pop Warner Little Scholars in Philadelphia.

He was presented the prestigious Timmie Award from the Touchdown Club of Washington in 1974 for the "extraordinary achievement" by the Dolphins over a four-year period (54-11-1) through three Super Bowl appearances. Robbie's credits include Pro Football Executive of the Year in 1972 by the Long Island Athletic Club, Football Man of the Year in 1971 by both the Football News and the Minutemen Club of the Twin Cities, and Football Father of the Year in 1976 by Pop Warner Junior League Football.

More recently, he was elected to the South Dakota Sports Writers Hall of Fame and received the C.H.I.E.F. Award from the Independent Colleges and Universities of Florida, the Humanitarian Award by Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Greater Miami, and the Good Samaritan Award by Variety Children's Hospital.

Robbie was the national fund-raising chairman for the Dakota Dome, a $7.2-million arena at his alma mater, the University of South Dakota, which presented him an honorary Doctor of Laws degree in 1979 and inducted him into the school's Hall of Fame.

He may be the only person ever elected student body president of two colleges — Northern State Teachers College in Aberdeen, S.D., and the University of South Dakota in Vermillion. He founded the South Dakota Student Federation consisting of the student governments of all of South Dakota's colleges and universities, and he served as its president both years he was student president at Northern and USD.

A gifted extemporaneous speaker, he won the National Discussion Debate championship in Chicago in 1940 and earned his law degree from South Dakota in 1946. His education was interrupted by Navy duty during World War II, and he received the Bronze Star for his part in five South Pacific invasions.

Robbie was born July 7, 1916 in Sisseton, S.D. He and his wife Elizabeth, married December 28, 1942, have raised 11 children. Robbie first practiced law in Mitchell, S.D. (1946-51) when he served as Democratic State Chairman, state legislator and 1950 gubernatorial candidate. His family had grown to six children when he moved to Minneapolis in 1951 to become Regional Counsel for the Office of Price Stabilization, and later he directed a four-state area with 500 employees.

He was a charter member of the Twin Cities Metropolitan Planning Commission, and he drafted the law which created the Minnesota Municipal Commission, for which he was chairman from 1959 to 1965.

It was then in 1965, after 20 years as a lawyer, that Joseph Robbie brought pro football to Miami.

DONALD F. SHULA

VICE-PRESIDENT, HEAD COACH

Don Shula would measure a coach's success by yardsticks other than victories and championships, although he has miles of achievements in those ways. Of greater importance to pro football's most celebrated winner is something intangible. What matters most is one's integrity as a competitor.

"If I'm remembered for anything as a coach," Shula says, "I hope it's for playing within the rules. I also hope it will be said that my teams showed class and dignity in victory or defeat."

He has assured his place among the giants of the National Football League by being the only coach to reach the Super Bowl three straight years and the youngest coach to win 100 games. His career winning percentage of .709 is the best among the NFL's all-time 10 top winners.

Shula has become to coaching what his unbeaten 1972 Miami Dolphins are to team accomplishment: the standard of excellence by which all others are measured.

But there is an intriguing footnote to the record Shula has carved in his 21 years of pacing the NFL sidelines. This statistic speaks volumes about his coaching ability and his style — the Dolphins have been the least-penalized team in the NFL during Shula's 14 seasons in Miami.

"We never let an error go unchallenged," says Shula, who drills for precision in every practice. "Uncorrected errors will multiply. Someone once asked me if there wasn't benefit in overlooking one small flaw. I asked him, 'What is a small flaw?'"

Shula was voted Coach of the Decade for the 1970s by the Pro Football Hall of Fame's 25-member selection committee, and his Dolphins have reached the playoffs three more times in the 1980s. He marches into 1984 with a record of 226-91-6 and a strong chance of rising to No. 3 on the all-time victory list.

His "ultimate" achievement was the NFL's first unbeaten, untied record of 17-0 in 1972 — in only the third season of Shula's transformation of the Dolphins from a struggling American Football League franchise to an NFL power. His incredible two-year record of 32-2 including Super Bowl conquests in 1972 and 1973 probably will never be surpassed.

Maybe because Shula never regarded an unbeaten season as impossible, the feat became a reality.

"At the beginning of the season, you don't say to yourself, 'We can't win every football game,'" he says. "I believe you go out every day trying to win and every week trying to win. You set a goal to be the best, and then you work hard every hour of every day, striving to reach that goal. If you allow yourself to settle for anything less than Number One, then you are cheating yourself."

With teams in Baltimore and Miami, Shula has built five unbeaten streaks of 10 or more games, and no other coach has more than two 10-game streaks. His 70 percent winning mark in 14 seasons in Miami (153-65-2) parallels his 72.8 percent success in Baltimore (73-26-4) from 1963 to 1969.

By winning the AFC East title in 1983, the Dolphins have either won or shared first place in the division 11 times in the 14 years under Shula and have reached the playoffs 10 times. His Dolphins have been almost invincible at the Orange Bowl with an 89-20-1 record (81.4%), including an NFL-record 31-game winning streak at home from 1971 to 1974. A remarkable 16 times in 21 seasons, Shula's teams have won at least 10 games.

Shula, 54, has made a mark on the game as an innovator of defensive complexities and situational substitutions, and he has a reputation as a great motivator. Certainly, other coaches can develop brilliant strategy and exhort their players to perform at peak. But Shula seems to surpass others in his skill as a teacher.

"The important thing is not what Don Shula knows or what any of my assistant coaches know," Shula says. "The important thing is that we can transmit to the people we're responsible for. They're going to be tested on Sunday afternoon, and the fact that we win on Sunday afternoon indicates that we're getting through to them. That's what coaching is — the ability to transmit information."

Twice with the Dolphins, in 1970 and 1977, Shula has deployed five rookies in the starting defense and won 10 of 14 games each season. And for those exigencies brought on by injuries to his starting quarterback, Shula has more solutions. Backup quarterbacks for the Dolphins have a 27-7-1 record under Shula since 1970.

He cultivates a winning attitude in preseason success which reads 83-24-4 (76 %) including 32-4-1 at Baltimore and 51-20-3 at Miami.

He had been the youngest head coach, 33, in NFL history when the Colts picked him in 1963 after Shula's three years as defensive coordinator of the Detroit Lions. In the old NFL, the Colts reached the title game in 1964 and 1968 after 12-2 and 13-1 campaigns, and the 1967 Colts posted an 11-1-2 record. Those three powerhouse teams averaged scoring almost 30 points per game.

Shula's resourcefulness is best documented in 1965 when injuries sidelined Colt quarterbacks John Unitas and Garry Cuozzo, and halfback Tom Matte wore the "playbook" on his wristband and directed a 20-17 upset at Los Angeles.

Shula transformed a 3-10-1 Dolphin team into a playoff qualifier his first season in Miami and laid the foundation for a perennial contender. In 1971, the Dolphins won their first of four consecutive AFC East titles, and on Christmas Day in Kansas City, the NFL's longest game (82 minutes, 40 seconds) ended with Garo Yepremian's winning 37-yard field goal in the second overtime. A week later, the Dolphins stymied the Unitas-led Colts 21-0 on the same Poly-Turf where Baltimore had won Super Bowl V the previous January.

Dethroning the Colts launched the Dolphins to three consecutive AFC championships — a feat unequalled in either conference since the 1970 merger. But a disappointing 24-3 loss to the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl VI filled Shula and his players with greater drive, and in 1972, the Dolphins attracted headlines as the "Greatest Team Ever."

Shula had claimed 38-year-old Earl Morrall from the waiver list in April, 1972, recalling Morrall's leadership of the 1968 Colts. When quarterback Bob Griese suffered a broken ankle in the fifth game, Morrall took charge for 11 straight victories. The Dolphins rewrote the NFL rushing record (2,960 yards), and with a regular-season record of 105-30-5, Shula became the first NFL coach to win 100 games in his first decade. Later in his career, he was to accomplish the even more impressive feat of winning 200 games in his first 20 seasons as an NFL boss.

Surprisingly, the unbeaten Dolphins were three-point underdogs to the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl VII. Shula elected to go with a healthy Griese, and the Dolphins dominated the Redskins 14-7 for the coach's first NFL crown.

No less impressive were the 1973 Dolphins, losing only twice in 17 games. The Dolphins set a modern NFL record by allowing only 1,290 yards passing and only five touchdown passes, and they overwhelmed three playoff opponents, 85-33, including a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings in Super Bowl VIII.

Another three-game surge in the playoffs, this time a 76-26 blitz, earned the AFC championship in the strike-shortened 1982 season and landed the Dolphins in Super Bowl XVII. Miami held a four-point lead in the fourth quarter before Washington broke a long touchdown run that sparked a 27-17 Redskin victory.

Donald Francis Shula was born January 4, 1940 in Grand River, Ohio, and raised in Painesville, Ohio. He was a running back at John Carroll University in Cleveland, and in 1950, he gained 125 yards when the Blue Streaks upset Syracuse, 21-15.

Shula was the lone rookie on Coach Paul Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland Browns in 1951 (until Shula's college teammate Carl Taseff joined the Browns at midseason). Shula and Taseff were involved in the largest trade in modern NFL history, a 15-player deal with Baltimore in 1953, and Shula played four seasons with the Colts (1953-56) and one season at Washington (1957) at right cornerback. He had 21 career interceptions for 247 yards.

Shula entered the coaching ranks with an assistant's job at Virginia (1958) and Kentucky (1959), and he joined the NFL's Detroit Lions in 1960 under Coach George Wilson — a man he later replaced in Miami. The Lions posted a 26-13-1 record with Shula as the defensive coordinator.

"I've tried to learn from all and copy none," Shula says. "Everyone I played or coached under were different types, and I learned from them while still being myself. I've never gone out and tried to be Paul Brown or Blanton Collier or George Wilson. They satisfied my great thirst for knowledge, my searching and looking to find out the what, the how, and the why. I tried to take all the things I've been exposed to, and if I can incorporate them into the framework of Don Shula, that's fine.

In 1963, Shula succeeded Weeb Ewbank as head coach at Baltimore, and in the 21 seasons which have followed, he has reached the NFL's championship game six times with two victories.

Today, he takes an active role in NFL leadership, serving since 1975 on the select NFL Competition Committee which evaluates and recommends changes in playing rules. Improved safety in pro football has also been a major concern of this committee.

Shula especially values his family life and his Catholic faith. He and the former Dorothy Bartish have been married 26 years (7/19/58) and have raised five children — two boys and three girls. Oldest son David, 25, and his wife Leslie presented the Shulas with a grandson in 1983.

David Shula, a 1982 late-season addition to the Dolphin coaching staff, had broken all pass receiving records at Dartmouth and had played for Baltimore in 1981. Younger brother Michael, an all-state quarterback at Columbus High who led the Explorers to the state final in 1982, is a sophomore quarterback at Alabama.

The Shulas' oldest daughter, Donna, became a bride in 1984. Sharon is a law student at Florida State University, and Annie attends Barry University in North Miami.

ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF

J. MICHAEL ROBBIE

Executive Vice President and General Manager

11th NFL Season, 11th with Dolphins

Born: January 6, 1948

Entering his seventh year as the Dolphins' Executive Vice-President and General Manager, Mike Robbie is responsible for the overall operation of the team's front office. His duties encompass all aspects of club operations from contract negotiations to financial management.

Robbie's initial endeavors for the Dolphins came when he served in the team's ticket department from 1971-75, including two seasons as Ticket Director. He then took a three-year leave of absence to obtain his law degree from the University of South Dakota. He returned to South Florida, and in October, 1978, was named to his current position. Robbie's legal training and business background, coupled with his earlier "grassroots" experience in the Dolphin organization laid solid groundwork for his successful entrance as the team's day-to-day administrator.

Included among his Dolphin projects has been the implementation of a computer system for all club operations from ticket accounts to scouting. In addition, Robbie has represented the Dolphins at NFL meetings since 1979.

Robbie earned both his Juris Doctor and M.B.A. degrees from the University of South Dakota, and he has a B.S. in Mechanical Engineering from the University of Notre Dame. He is a member of the South Dakota Bar. The fourth oldest of 11 Robbie children, he is a native of Mitchell, South Dakota and a graduate of Minneapolis' De LaSalle High School.

Mike and his wife Dwyne live in Miami Shores.

DONALD POSS

Vice-President
Planning and Special Projects

2nd NFL Season, 2nd with Dolphins

Born: October 16, 1932

As he enters his second season of involvement with the Miami Dolphins, Donald Poss continues to work very closely with team owner Joseph Robbie in plans for a proposed new multi-purpose stadium for South Florida.

Poss certainly has the credentials to undertake this project. He was the chief executive officer of the Minnesota Sports Facilities Commission which supervised the design, financing, and building of the Metrodome Stadium in Minneapolis. During the five years that Poss served with the Commission, he negotiated and managed all major contracts which resulted in completing the Metrodome on time and within budget.

For 17 years, Poss was a Minneapolis suburban city engineer and city manager. A 1955 engineering graduate of the University of Wisconsin, he joined the Dolphins on February 15, 1983.

Don and his wife Ann have three children, Vicki, Susan and Dan.

JOE ABRELL

Vice President-
Public Affairs

1st NFL Season, 1st with Dolphins

Born: July 24, 1934

On July 6, 1984, Joe Abrell was named to the position of Vice President—Public Affairs for the Miami Dolphins. In that capacity, Abrell will be directly responsible for all informational aspects of the Dolphins as well as coordinating marketing and sales for the proposed Dolphin Stadium.

In joining the Dolphins, Abrell left his position of Director of Public Affairs for Miami's WTVJ-TV (CBS) where he also hosted and was executive producer of the highly successful "Montage" magazine show. Abrell had assumed his public affairs post in 1972 after serving three years as Channel 4's news director. While holding his position at WTVJ, Abrell began law school at the University of Miami in 1976, and has been admitted to the Florida and District of Columbia bars.

Following his graduation from Indiana University with a degree in literature and journalism, Abrell served as a reporter for the Terre Haute (Ind.) Star before becoming a correspondent for Newsweek Magazine. After three years at Newsweek, he joined WTVJ as Director of Special News Projects in 1963. From 1965-66, Abrell was a CBS Fellow at Columbia University where he earned his masters degree in political history.

Joe and his wife Judy live in Miami. Daughter Lisa is a Miami money broker while son Brad is a sophomore at the University of Florida.

ASSISTANT COACHES

TOM KEANE

Defensive Backs

21st NFL Season, 19th with Dolphins

Born: September 7, 1926

Some men "have seen it all," and on the subject of Miami Dolphin football, Tom Keane has . . . literally. Keane joined the expansion Dolphins in 1966 and has been molding great defensive backfields ever since. In fact, among NFL assistant coaches, only Dallas' Ernie Stautner (1966-83) can claim to have labored for one team as long as Keane has.

Keane's charges had another successful season in 1983. Faced with the season-long loss of top cornerback Don McNeal, Keane molded a top-notch unit that ranked in the NFL's top quarter in both interceptions and pass defense. In the strike-shortened 1982 campaign, Miami DB's boasted 33 interceptions in nine regular season plus four playoff games (2.36 per contest). Since joining the Dolphins, Keane-led defensive backfields have averaged an impressive 22 interceptions per season. The Dolphins led the NFL in interceptions in 1978 (32), finished second in the AFL in that initial '66 season (31), and in 1973, allowed only five touchdown passes en route to a Super Bowl crown.

The 58-year-old Keane was an All-Pro safety for the Baltimore Colts in 1953, a season he intercepted a Colt record 11 passes. In 1952, Keane picked off ten passes, posted a 42.8-yard punting average, and held the ball for Bert Rechichar's 56-yard field goal that stood as an NFL record for 17 years.

Keane started as a freshman quarterback and tailback for Ohio State's undefeated 1944 club, then served 20 months for the U.S. Navy, stationed in the South Pacific. Upon his return, he enrolled at the University of West Virginia, playing two seasons for the Mountaineers. Keane skipped his senior season to be drafted by Los Angeles, and played for them from 1948-51. He was then traded to the Dallas Texans (1952), continuing with that franchise when it moved to Baltimore (1953-54). After spending the 1955 season with the Chicago Cardinals, Keane suffered a career-ending knee injury while tackling Tank Younger in a '56 pre-season game.

His coaching career began in 1957 with the Cardinals, then continued in 1960 with the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League. From 1961-64, Keane was head coach and general manager of the United Football League's Wheeling Ironmen, leading them to a pair of league titles. He joined the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1965 before being named to George Wilson's Dolphin staff in '66.

Tom and his wife Mary (married 7/5/52) live in Miami. The Keanes have two daughters, Candice and Mary, and two sons, Tom and Tim.

BOB MATHESON

Special Teams, Linebackers

2nd NFL Season, 2nd with Dolphins

Born: November 25, 1944

Bob Matheson, one of the most affable men to ever wear a Miami Dolphin uniform, returned to the club in February, 1983 as an assistant coach for special teams and linebackers. And in his first year patrolling the Miami sidelines, Matheson had a positive effect. On special teams, kick returner Fulton Walker led the NFL with a 26.7-yard average while rookie punter Reggie Roby and "hit man" Robert Sowell also excelled on specials.

Matheson was an NFL linebacker from 1967-79 for the Cleveland Browns and the Dolphins. A first round draft pick of the Browns in 1967, Matheson played for them for four seasons before being dealt to Miami for a second round draft pick in September, 1971. He became a very valuable weapon in the Dolphin defense's situational substitutions, being used as a fourth linebacker in passing situations with the option to blitz the quarterback or drop back into pass coverage. The now-famous "53 Defense" was named, not only for Matheson's jersey number, but also for the five short zones and three deep zones in the pass defense that the system created.

Matheson's 137 total games still rank as the most ever played by a Dolphin linebacker. He led the team in tackles in 1974, was the club's Linebacker of the Year in '75, and had a career-high 130 tackles in '77. Matheson participated in three Super Bowls during his Dolphin tenure.

Matheson earned All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors during his collegiate career at Duke University (1964-66). In '66, he set a school record for tackles while also being tabbed on several major All-America teams. In 1981, he returned to Duke as the Blue Devils' linebacker coach before joining the Dolphins in '83.

Bob and his wife Pam (married 6/17/67) live in Hollywood with their two sons Todd (9/19/70) and Drew (8/24/73), and daughter Jill (1/21/77).

JOHN SANDUSKY

Offense, Offensive Line

26th NFL Season, 9th with Dolphins

Born: December 28, 1925

The "old pro" of the Miami Dolphin coaching staff, John Sandusky is entering his 26th season as an NFL coach, five years more service than any other member of Miami's veteran staff. Despite his assistant coaching "title" of Offense/Offensive Line, Sandusky is also quite knowledgeable about defense, having spent seven of his 25 seasons coaching the other side of the line of scrimmage.

The 1983 season was a productive one for the Miami offense as the team averaged over 23 points per game. The Sandusky-tutored offensive line had an excellent season, allowing just 23 quarterback sacks, the fewest in the NFL. In addition, four of the Dolphins' offensive linemen received post-season honors ranging from All-Pro to the Pro Bowl.

The 57-year-old Sandusky joined the Dolphins in 1976 after spending three seasons (1973-75) as an assistant coach for the Philadelphia Eagles. Prior to that, he was a coach for the Baltimore Colts from 1959-72, including the 1963-69 seasons under then-Colt Head Coach Don Shula. When Shula moved to Miami in 1970, he attempted, but was unable, to bring Sandusky with him. Sandusky was on the Colt staff for their two Super Bowl appearances in games III and V.

When Don McCafferty was fired as Baltimore's head coach after winning only one of the first five games in 1972, Sandusky became the Colt boss and led his charges to four victories in their final nine games. Two of Sandusky's losses that season were to Shula's undefeated Dolphin team.

Sandusky was an All-America tackle at Villanova University (1946-49) before joining the NFL's Cleveland Browns in 1950. He played both offensive and defensive tackle in six seasons in Cleveland as the Browns made it to the NFL title game in all six of those campaigns (three wins). Sandusky then played one year (1956) with the Green Bay Packers before beginning his coaching career at Villanova (1957-58).

Sandusky has the unique distinction of having served in four different capacities in the now-defunct College All-Star game in Chicago. He played (1950) and coached (1958) for the All-Stars, and also played (1951, 1955) and coached (1969, 1971) for the NFL championship team that annually opposed the collegians.

John and his wife Ruth (married 3/31/51) live in Cooper City. They have three sons, Jack, James, and Gerry, and a daughter named Ruth. Another son, Joe, died in 1978 of complications from pneumonia while a sophomore at Tulsa University.

MIKE SCARRY

Defensive Line, Run Defense

19th NFL Season, 15th with Dolphins

Born: February 1, 1920

Mike Scarry's coaching career began in 1948 and now 36 years later, he remains one of the most knowledgeable and respected men in the profession. Scarry's charges have included past Dolphin stars like Bill Stanfill, Manny Fernandez, Vern Den Herder, and Bob Heinz; current starters Bob Baumhower, Doug Betters, and Kim Bokamper; plus up-and-coming youngsters Mike Charles and Charles Benson.

Scarry's defensive line was "puttin' on the blitz" again in 1983 as the Dolphins set a team record with 49 quarterback sacks (third in the AFC). In addition, Betters (Associated Press) and Baumhower (Pro Football Weekly) were each named NFL Defensive Lineman of the Year by varying polls. Under Scarry, the Dolphins have allowed just 65 rushing touchdowns in their last 89 regular-season games over the past six seasons (1978-83). In 1979, Miami kept opponents under 100 yards rushing on nine occasions, finishing with a miserly 106.4-yard average yield. All told, Dolphin defenders have gone over the 40-sack mark on four occasions (1973, '75, '78, and '83) during Scarry's tenure, and also led the NFL in shutouts (14) during the 1970's.

"Mo" joined Don Shula's Dolphin staff in 1970 after serving as a San Francisco 49er scout during the '69 season. His first professional coaching experience came with the Washington Redskins under Otto Graham from 1966-68.

Scarry enjoyed an 18-year college coaching career with stops at Western Reserve (1948-49), Santa Clara (1950-52), Loras College (1953), Washington State (1954-55), Cincinnati (1956-62), and Waynesburg College (1963-65). At Western Reserve, he also served as the school's head basketball coach (1946-50), and at Waynesburg, he was athletic director, head coach in football and basketball, and even served as the school's trainer. During his football head coaching tenure at Waynesburg, his Yellow Jackets posted a 17-8-1 record, including a pair of West Penn Conference titles. In addition, he recruited the undefeated Waynesburg squad that won the NAIA championship in 1966. Scarry is a member of the NAIA, Waynesburg College, and Western Pennsylvania Halls of Fame.

Scarry's playing days began at Waynesburg where he was a center and a linebacker from 1939-41. He has the distinction of having played in the first-ever televised football game between Waynesburg and Fordham in '39. After a two-year Army stint, Scarry joined (and captained) the Cleveland Rams from 1944-45. When the Rams left for Los Angeles, he signed with the Cleveland Browns of the All-America Football Conference (1946-47), captaining them as well, and being named All-Pro in '46.

A native of Duquesne, Pennsylvania, Mike and his wife Elizabeth (married 1/27/43) live in Miami. They have raised eight children, Sally Beth, Mike, Patricia, Tom, Maggie, John, Jim, and Dennis.

DAVID SHULA

Receivers, Pass Offense

3rd NFL Season, 3rd with Dolphins

Born: May 28, 1959

The youngest assistant coach in the NFL, 25-year-old David Shula attained permanent status on the Dolphin coaching staff in January, 1983 following a one month temporary assignment to replace Wally English. At the time of his hiring, Shula was a first-year law student, and thus had to decide whether to pursue a legal or a coaching career.

In his first full season, Shula's hard work and desire helped lead to the development of several of Miami's young receivers. Most notable of that group is Mark Duper who worked closely with Shula during the '82 post-season. In 1983, Duper posted the first 1000 yard receiving campaign in Dolphin history. In addition, '83 rookie Mark Clayton emerged as an outstanding young pass-catcher.

Shula spent one season (1981) as a return specialist/wide receiver for the Baltimore Colts, leading the club in punt returns. On September 27, 1981, "Shula Met Shula" as son David's Colt club competed against father Don's Dolphin team.

Shula was a two-time All-Ivy League selection at Dartmouth and holds all major Big Green receiving records including most career catches (133) and most career receiving yardage (1822). He started every game during his varsity career, and as a senior, caught 52 passes (school record) for 758 yards. Shula was also a four-sport letterman at Hollywood's Chaminade High School.

David and his wife Leslie (married 6/5/82) live in Miami with their son Danny (10/9/83).

CHUCK STUDLEY

Defense

16th NFL Season, 1st with Dolphins

Born: January 17, 1929

Chuck Studley was appointed the Dolphins' defensive coach last December 27, replacing Bill Arnsparger who left to become the head coach at Louisiana State University. Replacing "Arns" will be a tough job, but from early indications, Studley appears up to the task.

Studley began the 1983 season as the Defensive Coordinator for the Houston Oilers. Following the team's 0-6 start, Head Coach Ed Biles resigned on October 10, with Studley being tabbed as Interim Head Coach. He took over the undermanned Oilers, guiding them to upsets over Detroit and Cleveland, and nearly one over Miami. Studley's Oilers led Shula's Dolphins in the fourth quarter of their December 4 Astrodomes encounter before the visitors finally prevailed, 24-17.

Prior to his service in Houston, Studley spent the 1979-82 seasons as the defensive coordinator for the San Francisco 49ers. The '81 49er squad went "all the way," capturing Super Bowl XVI with a victory over the Cincinnati Bengals. Before heading to California, Studley had been a Bengal assistant for ten seasons (1969-78).

Studley, born in Maywood, Illinois, was an All-America guard at the University of Illinois (1949-51), captaining their undefeated 1951 team that went to the Rose Bowl. He began his coaching career at Alton (Ill.) High School (1952-54) before returning to his alma mater to coach the Fighting Illini (1955-59). As a head coach, he led the University of Massachusetts to a Yankee Conference championship in 1960, then spent eight years at the helm of the University of Cincinnati, helping the Bearcats to a pair of Missouri Valley titles.

Chuck and his wife Peggy (married 6/24/50) live in Miami Lakes. They have six children, Carole, Doug, Susan, David, Mike, and Steve.

CARL TASEFF

Offensive Backs

18th NFL Season, 15th with Dolphins

Born: September 28, 1928

Carl Taseff is entering his 15th season in charge of the Miami offensive backfield. During those years, Taseff's stable of backs has included such past Dolphin greats as Larry Csonka, Jim Kiick, and Mercury Morris, plus current standouts Tony Nathan and Andra Franklin. Under Taseff's clever guidance, Dolphin offensive backfields have changed along with the team's strengths, going from the ground-oriented attack of the '70's to the more explosive air game unveiled in 1983. In fact, in the eight-year span from 1970-77, Taseff's backs ranked fifth or higher in NFL rushing on seven occasions.

Taseff came to Miami in 1970, the first season of the Don Shula Era, after spending two years working for the CEPO scouting combine (1968-69). Prior to that, he had coaching stints with the AFL's Boston Patriots (1964) and the NFL's Detroit Lions (1965-66).

As a player, Taseff was a star running back at Cleveland's John Carroll University, scoring 22 touchdowns in 1950. He began his pro career in 1951 with his hometown Cleveland Browns before beginning a nine-year term (1953-61) with the Baltimore Colts. A comebacker for the Colts, Taseff set a team record with a 90-yard punt return for a touchdown against Green Bay (10/14/56). He holds an NFL record with a 99-yard return of a Walt Michaels field goal attempt against the Rams (12/12/59). After the Colts, Taseff played the latter part of the '61 season for Philadelphia before winding up his playing career with Buffalo in 1962. Overall, Taseff's career stats show 112 punt returns for 826 yards . . . and no fumbles.

Taseff and Shula's relationship dates back to their college days when they played in the same backfield together for Coach Herb Eisele's John Carroll squad. They were also roommates while both played for Cleveland (1951-52) and Baltimore (1953-56).

Carl and his wife Lucy (married 11/18/78) live in Pembroke Pines. He has two daughters, Cynthia Sue and Susan by a previous marriage.

JUNIOR WADE

Strength and Flexibility

10th NFL Season, 10th with Dolphins

Born: February 2, 1947

On February 15, 1983, Dolphin Head Coach Don Shula promoted Junior Wade to the position of Assistant Coach in charge of Strength and Flexibility. After serving eight years as the club's assistant trainer, it was a just reward for the hard-working Wade. As a trainer, Wade had long had the respect of the Dolphin players for his knowledge and his willingness to boost player morale by putting himself through the same rigorous rehabilitation as that prescribed for injured Dolphins.

Wade, who also helps Assistant Coach Bob Matheson with the Miami special teams, first joined the Dolphins as a training camp assistant for the 1973-74 pre-seasons. He was hired by the Dolphins on a full-time basis in time for the 1975 campaign. Wade's past job experience includes having worked as an athletic trainer and guidance counselor at Fayetteville State and as the trainer for the St. Louis Cardinals' baseball farm team in Orangeburg, South Carolina.

Wade was also the head baseball coach and assistant trainer at Davidson College. In 1975, he led the Wildcats to a 21-15 record, the best mark the school had ever posted. A three-year letterman himself at South Carolina State, Wade also earned his master's degree in education.

Junior, a native of Bath, South Carolina, lives in Hialeah with his wife Constance (married 12/13/70) and sons Aaron (2/25/72) and Jason (2/24/80).

PLAYER PERSONNEL

CHARLEY WINNER

Director of Pro Personnel, Administrative Asst.

30th NFL Season, 4th with Dolphins

Born: July 2, 1925

Charley Winner is entering his 30th year in the NFL in 1984, and boasts experience in virtually all phases of a football operation. In addition to his current duties of scouting the upcoming Dolphin opponent, Winner also searches for free agent talent, handles waiver and trade transactions for the team, and negotiates some player contracts.

Winner joined the Dolphins in 1981 after working one year for a cable television company. Prior to that, he enjoyed a distinguished coaching career which began in 1948 as an assistant under future father-in-law Weeb Ewbank at Washington University in St. Louis. He moved to Case Tech in 1950 under Head Coach Lou Saban, remaining there for four seasons. In 1954, Winner began his professional coaching career at Baltimore, again with Ewbank at the helm. From 1954-65, he coached Colt ends, defensive backs, linebackers, and served as defensive coordinator. During his Baltimore stint, he coached a defensive back named Don Shula, later serving on Shula's staff when he became the Colt boss.

In 1966, Winner accepted the head coaching position of the St. Louis Cardinals, a post he held for five seasons. His teams had a 35-30-5 record, including an outstanding 9-4-1 mark in 1968. From 1971-72, Winner coached defensive backs for George Allen's Washington Redskins, whose '72 squad lost to the Dolphins in the Super Bowl. He was again reunited in 1973 with Ewbank, this time as an assistant for the New York Jets. Winner took over as Jet head coach the following year, posting a 9-14 slate in two seasons. He then coached Cincinnati's defensive backfield from 1976-79. Under Winner's guidance, Bengal DB's had conference rankings of first (1976) and second (1978) during his tenure there.

A native of Somerville, New Jersey, Winner attended Southeast Missouri State College for one year before being drafted into the service in 1942. A radio operator and gunner in the Air Force, he flew 17 missions over Germany, and once spent six weeks in a German POW camp. Following the war, he completed his education at Washington University, earning letters in football and track.

Charley and his wife Nancy (married 6/23/50) live in Plantation. They have two daughters, Cinda and Lisa.

CHUCK CONNOR

Director of Player Personnel

7th NFL Season, 7th with Dolphins

Born: July 7, 1937

A shrewd judge of football talent, Chuck Connor is entering his seventh season with the Miami Dolphins. As Director of Player Personnel, Connor's primary task is scouting college players and preparing for the NFL's annual draft. Connor has done this quite well, as 34 players from his first six Miami drafts (1978-83) remained on the team's roster entering the pre-season.

Since Connor's arrival, the Dolphins have slowly rebuilt several key areas, including the defensive backfield, the offensive line, running back, and the kicking game. Connor's astute scouting and drafting has accomplished this without missing a competitive beat. The Dolphins won divisional titles in 1979, '81, and '83, and made it to the Super Bowl in the strike-shortened '82 campaign.

Connor joined the Dolphins in February, 1978 after spending the previous three years scouting for BLESTO, an organization that provides college player evaluations to subscribing NFL teams. In his last year with BLESTO, Connor had been promoted from area to regional scout, responsible for a nine-state area in the southeastern United States.

Connor began his career as a coach on the high school level, spending 15 years (1960-74) at Montour High near Pittsburgh. Eight of those seasons were spent as a head coach, with his 1967 squad going undefeated. In '74, he continued as a teacher at Montour while becoming the defensive backfield coach at Carnegie-Mellon University. While at Montour, Connor had begun evaluating players from film for the Pittsburgh Steelers, which eventually led to his BLESTO position.

Chuck and his wife Dorothy (married 6/27/59) live in Stone Mountain, Georgia. They have four children, Chuck (4/23/60), Mike (1/16/65), Karen (6/20/66), and Scott (7/29/76).

ELBERT DUBENION

Assistant Director of Player Personnel

17th NFL Season, 6th with Dolphins

Born: February 16, 1933

Responsible for the midwestern states encompassing the Big Ten and the Big Eight conferences, Elbert Dubenion enters his sixth season with the Miami Dolphins. Last season, "Duby" was elevated to the post of Assistant Director of Player Personnel, and thus works very closely with Director of Player Personnel Chuck Connor and Head Coach Don Shula in preparation for the annual collegiate draft.

As a player, Dubenion was an original member of the Buffalo Bills in 1960, staying with them until his retirement midway through the 1968 season. Nicknamed "Golden Wheels," he still holds many Buffalo receiving records including most receptions (296), most yards on receptions (5,304), and most touchdown receptions (35). In 1964, Dubenion caught 42 passes for 1,139 yards and 10 TDs as the Bills captured the AFL championship. He had originally signed with the Cleveland Browns in 1959, but was injured at the College All-Star camp.

Once his playing career ended, Dubenion accepted a scouting position with the Bills which he held from 1968-78. A Little All-America at Bluffton College in 1958, he set a school record with 53 touchdowns in his four varsity seasons.

Elbert and his wife Marilyn (married 6/8/59) live in Westerville, Ohio. They have four daughters, Debbie (3/1/61), Carol (1/8/63), Susan (10/8/65), and Lisa (2/16/67).

MILT DAVIS

College Scout

18th NFL Season, 7th with Dolphins

Born: May 31, 1929

Versatile Milt Davis has been the Dolphins' college scout for the 14-state western region since 1978. In addition to that duty, Davis also serves as a counselor and biology professor at Los Angeles City College.

Davis began his scouting career in 1967 with the Baltimore Colts, continuing in that capacity until 1976. He spent the '77 season "beating the bushes" for the Los Angeles Rams before joining the Dolphins.

In four seasons as a Colt defensive back (1957-60), Davis twice tied for the NFL lead in interceptions and was an All-Pro selection in 1957. In that rookie season, Davis picked off ten of his 27 career interceptions. He was a member of the Colts' 1958 and '59 teams that defeated the New York Giants for the league championship.

Richly educated, Davis received his undergraduate degree, a master's degree in zoology (he's an avid bird-watcher), and a doctorate in administrative education from UCLA.

Milt and his wife Yvonne (married 1/18/58) live in Los Angeles. They have three children, Allison (2/19/59) and twins Brian and Hilary (5/21/62).

MIKE CARTWRIGHT

College Scout

2nd NFL Season, 2nd with Dolphins

Born: February 12, 1946

College Scout Mike Cartwright is responsible for scrutinizing the football talent in the Rocky Mountain states. In his second Dolphin season, Cartwright came to the Miami organization from the BLESTO scouting combine. He worked for BLESTO from 1979-82, first as an area scout before being promoted to regional scout.

Cartwright's initial scouting position was with the San Francisco 49ers, working for Pro-Line. Prior to that, he was head coach and athletic director at St. Mary's School in Cheyenne, Wyoming for three years before serving the same tenure as head football coach at Cheyenne East High. Also a former teacher, Cartwright holds a B.S. in physical education and biological science from the University of Wyoming.

Mike and his wife Mary (married 9/25/74) live in Cheyenne with their son Jeremy (4/25/77), and Mike's two sons by a previous marriage, Chad (12/12/64) and Brad (12/30/68).

FOOTBALL STAFF

BOB LUNDY

Head Trainer

18th NFL Season, 18th with Dolphins

Born: March 28, 1936

In 17 years as head trainer of the Miami Dolphins, Bob Lundy has seen a lot of bumps and bruises and has handled them all with professionalism and sound knowledge. The respect the Dolphin players have for Lundy was displayed in 1974 when he was awarded the game ball following Miami's fourth consecutive AFC Eastern Division title.

Lundy is responsible for the day-to-day treatment of injured Dolphins in coordination with team physicians. He also oversees the Dolphins' extensive off-season conditioning program which has been somewhat responsible for a reduction in injuries over the past few seasons.

Lundy joined the Dolphins for their inaugural 1966 season under then-Head Coach George Wilson, and has been with the club for all but one of its campaigns (he sold real estate in 1973). When Don Shula took over as head coach in 1970, Lundy was retained and he has been manning the training room ever since.

A native of Wollaston, Massachusetts, Lundy is a 1958 graduate of Boston University. While a graduate student at Indiana University, he served as the Hoosiers' assistant trainer before becoming the head trainer at Detroit University (1960-63). Lundy's first professional job came in 1964 when he served two seasons as the Detroit Lions' assistant trainer.

Bob and his wife Alice (married 6/2/62) live in Miami. They have three sons, Bobby (3/30/63), Billy (6/30/66), and David (1/30/70).

BILL DAVIS

Assistant Trainer

2nd NFL Season, 2nd with Dolphins

Born: April 8, 1954

In May, 1983, Bill Davis joined the Miami Dolphins as assistant trainer. He had previously worked for the Dolphins on a part-time basis, serving as an assistant to Head Trainer Bob Lundy during the team's 1975-79 pre-season training camps. Davis is responsible for aiding Lundy with injury treatment and rehabilitation of Dolphin players.

Davis initially got involved in athletic training while he was a student at Davidson College. He aided current Dolphin Assistant Coach Junior Wade while Wade was baseball coach and assistant trainer for the Wildcats. The 30-year-old Davis received his B.A. degree from Davidson in 1976, and earned his NATA certification the following year.

In 1978, Davis got his master's degree in health and physical education from Tennessee Tech. The following fall, he was named Athletic Trainer for Men at the University of Tennessee-Martin, a position he held until accepting his current post.

Bill and his wife Linda live in Pembroke Pines.

DAN DOWE

Equipment Manager

19th NFL Season, 19th with Dolphins

Born: September 16, 1924

If the Dolphin family tree is traced back to its 1966 origin, somewhere among its roots will be Dan Dowe. He was hired as the team's assistant equipment manager in '66, and was promoted to equipment manager for the 1969 season.

A legendary practical joker, Dowe's humor is spread evenly among players, coaches, and visitors to the Dolphins' training complex. Past and present players, along with Dol-fans, turned out to roast Dowe at a 1978 banquet.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Dowe worked for a Boston industrial electronics firm as an aerospace lab technician, and as a police officer in the Miami Beach suburb of Bal Harbour. The native of Brighton, Massachusetts served four years aboard the U.S.S. Forest during World War II. After having been involved in the invasions of Normandy and North Africa, the ship was hit by a suicide plane near Okinawa in May, 1944.

Dan and his wife Virginia (married 6/8/57) live in Hollywood Hills with their son Darin (9/14/69).

THE DOLPHIN NAME

Mariners, Marauders, Mustangs, Missiles, Moons, Sharks, Suns — none of those other names suggested to the American Football League expansion franchise in 1965 could raise a fin to the runaway winner.

"Dolphins" was submitted by 622 entrants in a contest which attracted 19,843 entries and more than a thousand different names. The dozen finalists were delivered to a seven-member screening committee of local media.

The bottlenose dolphin, an intelligent creature with an irresistible built-in grin, has inspired wonderment for centuries. Plutarch observed 1,900 years ago that the dolphin "is the only creature who loves man for his own sake." Every trainer will have a tale of the dolphin's cleverness and ingenuity, and scientists are fascinated by a dolphin's natural equipment which far surpasses the range of Navy sonar equipment.

"The dolphin is one of the fastest and smartest creatures of the sea," Joseph Robbie said in announcing the team name October 8, 1965. "Dolphins can attack and kill a shark or a whale. Sailors say bad luck will come to anyone who harms one of them."

Mrs. Robert Swanson of West Miami won two lifetime passes to Dolphin games with her nickname entry. The tiebreaker was picking the winner and score of the 1965 game between the University of Miami and Notre Dame — it ended in a scoreless tie.

THE ORANGE BOWL

As the Miami Dolphins enter their nineteenth season of existence, so too do they enter their nineteenth season of residency in the Orange Bowl. With a present capacity of 75,206, the Orange Bowl has been the site of many great sporting events including five Super Bowls, the annual Orange Bowl Classic, and championship boxing matches.

The Orange Bowl was originally built for $325,000 in 1937 as a project of the Works Progress Administration. With an initial seating capacity of 25,000, bleacher seat expansion in 1945 added 12,000 seats. Three years later, double-decking of the north and south stands increased the Bowl's capacity to 60,000. In 1949, the sale of $50 non-interest bonds enabled the addition of 7,500 seats to boost the stadium's total to 67,500. The decking of the west end zone in 1968 brought the Orange Bowl to its current capacity of just over 75,000, although temporary east end zone bleachers between 1971-76 brought the total seating to 80,045.

The Orange Bowl's playing field consists of Prescription Athletic Turf which was installed in 1976. The PAT replaced the Poly-Turf that had been in the stadium for the previous six seasons.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: Media representatives who do not have press credentials for the entire season (but will be working for an accredited media outlet on an immediate deadline) may request them on a single-game basis. Telephone or written credential requests must be made at least three working days in advance to Chip Namias, Director of Publicity, Miami Dolphins, 4770 Biscayne Boulevard, Suite 1440, Miami, Florida 33137 (305-576-1000). Reserved credentials can be picked up at the Press Gate, located between Gates 9 and 10 at the Orange Bowl on the day of the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers with accredited media outlets on an immediate deadline may request credentials on a single-game basis from the Dolphins' Public Relations Department. Due to space limitations, it is not possible to issue credentials to freelance photographers. Field photographers are reminded to remain outside of the bench areas.

PRESS BOX: To get to the Orange Bowl press box, enter the Press Gate located between Gates 9 and 10. There are three press levels: third and fourth floors are for working press, while home and visiting radio are located on the fifth level. Only credentials issued by the Miami Dolphins will be honored for admittance to the Orange Bowl.

LOCKER ROOMS: Admission to the home and visiting locker rooms is governed by each individual team. Only media representatives with proper credentials will be admitted to the locker rooms. No one will be admitted to the locker rooms prior to the game.

PARKING: Press parking at the Orange Bowl is very limited. All parking pass requests must be directed to Stadium Manager Walter Golby or to Assistant Manager Max Cruz, (305) 579-6971. Lot #1 (entrance N.W. 3rd Street) is the area utilized for media representatives.

TELEPHONES: Any media member desiring to have their own press box telephone must order it directly from Southern Bell Special Services at (305) 883-1491, or from Rivers Demby of AT&T at (305) 493-6365. Pool "Charge-a-Call" phones will be available.

COPY TRANSMISSION: Copy transmission is available at every Miami Dolphin home game. The transmission representative is Tim Lippman, 9320 S. Hollybrook, Pembroke Pines, Florida, (305) 983-5600.

FIELD ACCESS: Only working photographers, TV camera personnel, and club/stadium officials are permitted on the field during the game. Media members with press box passes are allowed on the field with five minutes remaining in the fourth quarter. Your cooperation in this matter is greatly appreciated.

PRACTICE: Regular season practice sessions are usually held at 2:00 PM Tuesday through Friday, and at 11:00 AM on Saturday (home game). Practices are normally closed to out-of-town media unless special permission is granted by the coaching staff. To request permission, or to arrange for lunchtime or post-practice interviews, please call the Dolphins' Public Relations Department. Television crews are allowed to shoot the first ten minutes of practice. The team locker room is not open to the general media.

PRACTICE DIRECTIONS: The Dolphins practice at St. Thomas University (formerly Biscayne College) during both the pre-season and the regular season. To get to the North Miami location, take I-95 north to 826 West. Follow 826 west to the N.W. 27th Avenue exit. When taking the N.W. 27th Avenue exit ramp, proceed through the first traffic light (stay in right lane) to the second light and turn left (N.W. 32nd Avenue). The entrance to the University will be about 500 yards down on your right. Show the gate guard proper media identification and he will direct you to the Dolphin complex. The Dolphins maintain press facilities in rooms #1 and #2 of the University Inn, adjacent to the practice field.

ADVANCING: Generally, the Dolphins request that the opposing team's public relations representative visit training camp on Thursday to coincide with the weekly media conference call.

DOLPHINS SINCE 1970 MERGER

Since the 1970 merger of the National and American Football Leagues, the Miami Dolphins have consistently ranked in the top echelon of pro football. Miami, Dallas, and the L.A. Raiders are the only teams to have won more than 70 percent of their games, and the Dolphins have more regular season victories (142) than any AFC club. The Dolphins are also the only team in either the AFC or NFC to win three straight conference championships (1971-73).

RETIRED JERSEY #12

He was unquestionably the "thinking man's quarterback." Bob Griese, renowned for his poised leadership and ingenious play-calling, sustained the Dolphin offense with a flair for winning from 1967-80.

The bespectacled quarterback became the 14th passer in the NFL's exclusive 25,000-yard club in 1980. On the same day he reached that milestone, he suffered a shoulder injury which ultimately forced his retirement on June 25, 1981. His No. 12 jersey became the first to be retired May 6, 1982 in ceremonies at the Dolphins' annual awards banquet.

He had a .698 winning percentage (91-39-1) under Coach Don Shula. "Cornerstone of the franchise," Dolphin Owner Joseph Robbie called him. He was a consensus All-Pro quarterback in 1971 and 1977, made six appearances in the Pro Bowl, and was voted the team's Most Valuable Player six times by the South Florida media.

"He's probably the most unselfish guy I've ever been around," Shula says. "He got as much of a thrill calling the right running play for a touchdown as he did connecting on a bomb. That's just his makeup."

Orange Bowl crowd of 73,735 comprised fourth sellout of season.
- Sept. 21 — NFLPA calls players' strike with games not resuming until November 21.
- Dec. 12 — In one of the most bizarre incidents in Miami Dolphin history, a work release parolee cleared a space on the snow-frozen New England Patriots' turf that enabled the Patriots to kick a late fourth-quarter field goal and win the game 3-0 before 25,716 fans.
- Dec. 27 — The incredible record of not having won in 16 years in the Orange Bowl continued as the Dolphins scored 20 unanswered points in the second half to defeat the Buffalo Bills 27-10.

1983

- Jan. 8 — For the first time in nine years, the Dolphins won a playoff game, defeating the New England Patriots 28-13 before 68,842 fans.
- Jan. 16 — The Dolphins choked off the San Diego Chargers famed offense and defeated them 34-13 before 71,383 fans. The Chargers were held to a total offense of 247 yards, 203 yards below their league-leading average.
- Jan. 23 — A.J. Duhe set an AFC playoff record with three interceptions, including one for a 35-yard touchdown romp — as the Dolphins defeated the New York Jets for the third time in one season to win the AFC crown 14-0.
- Jan. 30 — In Pasadena, California, the Dolphins appeared in their fourth Super Bowl, and in spite of leading with only ten minutes to play, they lost 27-17 before a sellout crowd of 103,667 and a TV audience estimated at 115 million. Fulton Walker set a Super Bowl record with a 98-yard kickoff return for a touchdown, and he returned four kickoffs for a total of 190 yards.

- Apr. 26 —The Dolphins select quarterback Dan Marino in the first round of the 1983 draft (27th player overall). The drafting of the former University of Pittsburgh All-America marks the first time in Dolphin history that the club has chosen a QB with its initial draft choice.
- June 25 —Starting linebacker Larry Gordon dies of a rare heart disease while jogging in Arizona at the age of 28. Gordon had been the Dolphins' first round draft choice in 1976 out of Arizona State.
- Sept. 4 —Led by six quarterback sacks (four by Doug Betters), the Dolphin defense shuts out the Buffalo Bills 12-0 in the 1983 season opener. 78,715 fans in Rich Stadium see four Uwe von Schamann field goals account for all the scoring.
- Oct. 9 —Quarterback Dan Marino and wide receiver Mark Duper make their first-ever starts for the Miami Dolphins, with Marino passing for 322 yards and Duper netting seven catches for 202 yards. The offensive explosion produces 971 total yards between the Dolphins and Bills, with Buffalo winning the Orange Bowl encounter, 38-35 in overtime.
- Oct. 16 —The Dolphin secondary intercepts six New York Jet passes (three by William Judson in one quarter) to lead Miami to a 32-14 win in the Dolphins' final Shea Stadium appearance. QB Dan Marino completed 17 of 30 passes for 225 yards, 3 TDs, and 0 interceptions.
- Nov. 28 —Dolphin Owner Joseph Robbie announces the signing of Head Coach Don Shula to a multi-year contract.
- Dec. 2 —Bill Arnsparger, the Dolphins' Assistant Head Coach and mastermind of the team's defense, resigns to become the head coach at Louisiana State University. His resignation is effective at the end of the season.
- Dec. 14 —Squads for the 1983 Pro Bowl are announced with six Dolphins being named to the squad (four starters), plus four alternates. Earning places on the team were NT Bob Baumhower, DE Doug Betters, WR Mark Duper, QB Dan Marino, G Ed Newman, and C Dwight Stephenson. The alternates included LB A.J. Duhe, G Bob Kuechenberg (later added to team), P Reggie Roby, and KR Fulton Walker.
- Dec. 16 —With starting QB Dan Marino sidelined for the second consecutive game, "relief pitcher" Don Strock again steps in to help lead Miami to a 34-14 Orange Bowl win over the Jets. Safety Mike Kozlowski breaks open a close game when he returns two interceptions for touchdowns in a 61-second span in the fourth quarter. WR Mark Duper catches four passes for 71 yards to become the first Dolphin receiver to go over the 1000 yard mark in a single season.
- Dec. 27 —The Dolphins name 54-year-old Chuck Studley as their Defense Coach to replace Bill Arnsparger. Studley had spent the 1983 season as defensive coordinator, and then interim head coach of the Houston Oilers.
- Dec. 31 —Despite winning or sharing the AFC East title for the 11th time in 14 years, the Dolphins see their season and 1983 end on a disappointing note as the Seattle Seahawks beat them 27-20 in a conference semi-final playoff game in Miami.

'83 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME #1 MIAMI 12, BUFFALO 0

ORCHARD PARK, SEPT. 4 — The Miami Dolphins, led by a defense that produced six quarterback sacks and two interceptions, shutout the Buffalo Bills 12-0 before 78,715 fans at Rich Stadium. The victory continued the Dolphins' dominance over Buffalo with Miami owning a 28-6-1 mark against the Bills. The game matched the NFL's top two defenses from 1982, and only 435 yards of total offense were mustered by the Dolphins and Bills. A Glenn Blackwood interception led to Uwe von Schamann's first of four field goals on the day, a 33-yarder very early in the second quarter. Von Schamann followed with field goals of 23, 36, and 50 yards to account for all of the game's scoring. His counterpart, Fred Steinfort was not as fortunate, missing on attempts of 33 and 49 yards, and having a 34-yard try blocked by Miami linebacker Earnie Rhone. Offensively, it was not a productive Dolphin day as Miami managed only 177 net yards, including just 26 net yards passing (an all-time low for a Don Shula-coached Dolphin team). Miami lost two key players with season-ending knee injuries as WR Jimmy Cefalo and WR/PR Tommy Vitorito went down in the first half.

GAME #2 MIAMI 34, NEW ENGLAND 24

MIAMI, SEPT. 11 — The Miami Dolphins, displaying a virtual balanced attack, defeated the New England Patriots 34-24 before 59,343 fans in the Orange Bowl. The victory marked the 16th consecutive time that the Dolphins have bested the Patriots in Miami. The Dolphins racked up 396 yards offensively with 201 yards coming on the ground and 195 through the air. After the Pats took an early lead on John Smith's 22-yard field goal, the Dolphins ended the first quarter on Andra Franklin's six-yard touchdown in a drive highlighted by a pair of David Woodley to Nat Moore completions. Miami tight end Joe Rose's 32-yard reception set up Uwe von Schamann's 28-yard field goal. Later in the second quarter, starting tight end Dan Johnson's first NFL reception (33 yards) led to a one-yard Woodley to Johnson TD to give Miami a 17-3 halftime advantage. Miami increased its lead in the third quarter as first-year Dolphin linebacker Mark Brown recovered Ricky Smith's fumbled punt to pave the way for a 23-yard von Schamann field goal. The South Floridians then notched their longest play of the young season, a 64-yard Woodley to Duriel Harris touchdown hook-up. The Patriots managed three fourth quarter TD's, including scoring passes from Steve Grogan to Lin Dawson (12 yards) and Clarence Weathers (36 yards), plus a five-yard Mose Tatupu run. The Dolphins' final score came on Franklin's second six-pointer of the day following Gerald Small's interception and 28-yard return.

GAME #3 L.A. RAIDERS 27, MIAMI 14

LOS ANGELES, SEPT. 19 — The Miami Dolphins fell from the ranks of the unbeaten, losing a 27-14 decision to the Los Angeles Raiders before 57,796 fans at the Coliseum. The defeat was Miami's ninth road loss to the Raiders without a win, and dropped their "lifetime" record versus the Silver and Black to 3-13-1. Despite outgaining the Raiders 308-271, the Dolphins never could get untracked against the stingy Los Angeles defense. The Raiders scored a touchdown in each quarter, beginning with Frank Hawkins' two-yard run set up by a 20-yard completion from Jim Plunkett to Malcolm Barnwell, plus a pass interference call on Miami's Glenn Blackwood. Late in the second quarter, Dolphin placekicker Uwe von Schamann's streak of 11 consecutive regular season field goals came to an end when he was wide right on a 37-yarder. Taking over on their own 20, Plunkett drove L.A. 80 yards in 1:35, featuring three passes to tight end Todd Christensen (the last one 14 yards for a TD). The only scoring in the third quarter came when L.A.'s Rod Martin forced a David Woodley fumble that was recovered by Raider rookie Greg Townsend and returned 66 yards for a touchdown. Greg Pruitt's five-yard TD closed out Los Angeles' scoring. Down 27-0, Dolphin Head Coach Don Shula inserted rookie Dan Marino as quarterback for his first regular season action. Five Marino completions, plus a roughing the passer penalty, keyed Miami's first TD drive, culminating in a six-yard toss to tight end Joe Rose. Following a Dolphin recovery of an onsidess kick, Marino led Miami to his second six-pointer in as many series as a pro. Completing six of eight on this drive, Marino hit Mark Duper for a two-yard touchdown, the latter's first NFL TD.

GAME #4 MIAMI 14, KANSAS CITY 6

MIAMI, SEPT. 25 — The Miami Dolphins, despite seven turnovers, held on to defeat the Kansas City Chiefs 14-6 before 50,785 fans in the Orange Bowl. The story of the contest was turnovers as the Chiefs committed five give-aways for a game total of 12. Miami's five fumbles lost established a new team record and the final 2:41 of the first half "featured" four turnovers. Scoring-wise, Kansas City took a 6-0 second quarter lead on Nick Lowery field goals of 45 and 46 yards. Miami rookie linebacker Mark Brown's first career interception and a pair of David Woodley runs for a total of 23 yards set up Andra Franklin's one-yard touchdown. The bizarre finish to the first half included a Bill Kenney fumble, a Woodley interception (by Durwood Roquemore), and William Judson's initial NFL interception with a 29-yard return to end the second quarter. The game's final score came in the third quarter when the Dolphins mounted the only sustained drive of the contest. Miami marched 85 yards in 14 plays with the touchdown coming on a one-yard pass from Woodley to tight end Dan Johnson. A 15-yard Woodley to Duriel Harris hook-up followed immediately by Tony Nathan's 18-yard halfback toss to Bruce Hardy paved the way for the score. Neither team seriously threatened in the final quarter, and a Glenn Blackwood interception (Miami's fourth of the game) with 15 seconds remaining sealed the Dolphin win.

GAME #5 NEW ORLEANS 17, MIAMI 7

NEW ORLEANS, OCT. 2 — The Miami Dolphins lost their first-ever game to the New Orleans Saints, dropping a 17-7 decision before a sold-out Superdome crowd of 66,489. The Saints' defense held Miami to just 244 total yards, and held the Dolphins without a point until midway in the fourth quarter. After a scoreless first period, the Saints opened the second quarter with an 81-yard drive, culminating in a 16-yard touchdown pass from Kenny Stabler to rookie receiver Tyrone Young. After a 4 for 12, 34-yard performance, Dolphin quarterback David Woodley was replaced late in the second quarter by first-year QB Dan Marino. With Saints' running back Wayne Wilson having a big day (34 carries for 160 yards), Stabler passed only eight times in the second half. A roughing the punter call on Miami's Jim Jensen plus a 27-yard Stabler to Kenny Duckett completion set up Morten Andersen's 32-yard field goal. On the ensuing series, Marino was hit by New Orleans' defensive end Frank Warren while attempting to throw, and the pass was picked off by fellow DE Reggie Lewis and returned 27 yards for a touchdown. Miami's only score came on a 10-play, 88-yard drive highlighted by three completions from Marino to tight end Joe Rose, and ending in a ten-yard touchdown toss to Mark Duper.

GAME #6 BUFFALO 38, MIAMI 35 (OT)

MIAMI, OCT. 9 — The Miami Dolphins lost to the Buffalo Bills in the Orange Bowl for the first time since 1966, dropping a 38-35 overtime verdict before 59,948 fans. It was a quarterback showcase as Buffalo's Joe Ferguson was 38 of 55 for 419 yards and five touchdowns while Dolphin rookie Dan Marino (in his first start) completed 19 of 29 for 322 yards and three TD's. Things started off poorly for Miami as the Bills opened up a 14-0 second quarter lead on a pair of Ferguson to Byron Franklin touchdown tosses of nine and 30 yards. Dolphin running back Woody Bennett's 25-yard jaunt set up his one-yard plunge for the touchdown to close Miami's deficit to seven at halftime. In the Dolphins' second possession of the third quarter, Marino hit wide receiver Mark Duper (202 yards receiving), also making his first start, for a 63-yard touchdown to tie it at 14-14. The Bills came right back to go ahead on an 11-yard reception by Booker Moore before the Dolphins again knotted the contest on the "play of the game." A double reverse option from Marino to Tony Nathan to wide-out Mark Clayton produced a 48-yard Clayton to Duper touchdown pass for a 21-21 score. Again, the Bills immediately came back, opening the fourth quarter with a 63-yard drive culminating in a four-yard Ferguson to Joe Cribbs hook-up. The Dolphins also scored on their next series, the fifth TD by both teams in as many possessions, as Nat Moore cradled a sixty-yard Marino throw. Dolphin defensive back Fulton Walker broke the scoring streak with an interception that set up Clayton's first NFL TD catch, a 14-yard score to put Miami ahead 35-28 with 3:06 remaining in regulation play. Buffalo QB Ferguson then launched an 80-yard drive ending in a fourth and one pass to Cribbs to tie the contest with just 23 seconds left and ultimately send the game into overtime. In OT, Miami won the coin toss and had opportunities to win on their first two possessions, but placekicker Uwe von Schamann missed on field goal attempts of 52 and 43 yards. A 35-yard Ferguson to Mike Moseley completion then set up Joe Danelo's winning 36-yard field goal just 1:18 away from a tie game.

GAME #7 MIAMI 32, NEW YORK JETS 14

NEW YORK, OCT. 16 — The Miami Dolphins, aided by a club record-tying six interceptions (three by William Judson), defeated the New York Jets 32-14 before 58,615 fans at Shea Stadium. The win marked Miami's fourth consecutive victory over the Jets. Just 2:56 into the first quarter, Miami got on the scoreboard as rookie quarterback Dan Marino hooked up with Nat Moore for a 66-yard touchdown pass. However, the Jets came right back on their next series, culminating an 83-yard drive with a two-yard Richard Todd to Mike Augustyniak TD toss. Following Uwe von Schamann's missed 37-yard field goal attempt, a Richard Todd pass was batted in the air by Doug Betters and intercepted by Dolphin defensive end Kim Bokamper. "Bo's" 24-yard return for a touchdown coupled with Jet Ben Randolph's block of von Schamann's PAT gave Miami a 13-7 lead. The last 2:45 of the second quarter featured five different possessions including a Marino-led five-play, 67-yard drive in 45 seconds ending in a 24-yard scoring strike to tight end Joe Rose. The Dolphins continued their domination into the third quarter as von Schamann's 35 yard field goal extended the lead to 23-7. A Gerald Small interception gave Miami the ball on New York's 27, and five plays later Marino hit tight end Dan Johnson with a five-yard TD throw. On the first play of the fourth quarter, Jet substitute quarterback Pat Ryan connected with Mickey Shuler on a nine-yard scoring play before Miami closed out the scoring with a safety when Ryan fumbled in the end zone and was downed by Dolphin first-year defensive lineman Mike Charles.

MIAMI 21, BALTIMORE 7

BALTIMORE, OCT. 23 — The Miami Dolphins, despite continuous rains that produced sloppy field conditions, churned out a 21-7 win over the Baltimore Colts before 32,343 fans at Memorial Stadium. The Dolphins broke on top with 1:20 left in the first quarter when Miami quarterback Dan Marino hit a wide-open Nat Moore with an eight-yard touchdown pass. The score had been set up when Miami defensive end Doug Betters stripped the ball from Colt running back Curtis Dickey, and Bob Baumhower recovered on the Baltimore 18-yard line. On their first possession of the second quarter, the Dolphins struck quickly, moving 72 yards in only five plays. The key play of the drive was a 64-yard Marino to Mark Duper pass with the touchdown coming on fullback Andra Franklin's one-yard plunge. The first interception of defensive back Paul Lankford's career gave Miami the ball at their own 47, and six plays later the Dolphins owned a 21-0 second quarter lead when Duper caught a 28-yard TD toss from Marino. Baltimore averted the shutout late in the fourth quarter when a David Overstreet fumble helped set up an eventual 20-yard touchdown pass from Mike Pagel to Ray Butler. The victory was Miami's 11th in their last 12 meetings with the Colts.

MIAMI 30, L.A. RAMS 14

MIAMI, OCT. 30 — The Miami Dolphins, led by 452 yards of total offense, defeated the Los Angeles Rams 30-14 before 72,175 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins scored on the game's first possession as rookie quarterback Dan Marino connected on all five passing attempts in the 80-yard drive, then scored the TD himself on a two-yard run. The Rams tied it up late in the opening quarter on a two-yard pass from Vince Ferragamo to running back Mike Guman after a 40-yard scamper by first-year pro Eric Dickerson. Miami again went ahead midway through the second stanza on a 46-yard Marino to Mark Duper touchdown toss. A 31-yard run by Dickerson set up his two-yard score to cap a nine-play, 80-yard drive that knotted the score at 14-14 at halftime. Miami jumped in front to stay on its initial second half possession as a 28-yard Marino to Duper completion set up Uwe von Schamann's 32-yard field goal. The Dolphins extended their third quarter lead to 24-14 on Tony Nathan's 18-yard TD on a 60-yard drive highlighted by Marino throws to Duper (14 yards) and Nat Moore (20 yards). The Dolphins scored their final TD on a three-yard reception by David Overstreet following his 44-yard run. Von Schamann's attempt for the extra point was blocked by Ram defensive end Gary Jeter. ### MIAMI 20, SAN FRANCISCO 17

SAN FRANCISCO, NOV. 6 — The Miami Dolphins, twice coming back from first-half deficits, defeated the San Francisco 49ers 20-17 before 57,832 fans at Candlestick Park. The win was Miami's fourth without a loss in their brief history with San Francisco. The 49ers broke on top on a 39-yard scoring toss from Joe Montana to Dwight Clark, aided by an earlier 24-yard completion to tight end Russ Francis. Late in the first quarter, Miami tied it on a 24-yard TD pass from rookie quarterback Dan Marino to ten-year veteran Nat Moore. Following an Andra Franklin fumble at the 49er nine, San Francisco put together a ten-play, 91-yard drive highlighted by a 45-yard pass play from Montana to Mike Wilson, and ending with Roger Craig's ten-yard scoring run. Late in the half, Fulton Walker's 32-yard kickoff return gave Miami possession at their own 37. Two Marino to Joe Rose completions for a total of 43 yards set up a 19-yard touchdown strike to Moore. The Dolphins broke the 14-14 tie on their first possession of the second half. Marino's 29-yard pass to Moore paved the way for Uwe von Schamann's 35-yard field goal. However, San Francisco again tied it on a 36-yard Ray Werschling field goal following a 33-yard sprint by Wendell Tyler. The winning points came on Miami's next series, courtesy of a 23-yard von Schamann boot. The Dolphins had gotten in position for the three-pointer when Ronnie Lott's pass interference on Mark Duper accounted for 46 Miami yards. Late in the game, the 49ers travelled to the Dolphin 21 before Bob Brudzinski stripped Craig of the ball with Doug Betters recovering for the South Floridians. San Francisco got one more chance with 80 seconds remaining, but Bob Baumhower's sack of Montana caused another fumble with Betters again recovering.

The win clinched the AFC Eastern Division championship for Miami. The Dolphins have won or shared a division title in 11 of the 14 years that the South Florida club has been coached by Don Shula. Houston dominated the Dolphins in the first half, outgaining them 178-95. The Oilers scored on the game's initial possession as Earl Campbell carried eight times for 63 of the drive's 81 yards. The touchdown came on a five-yard pass from Oliver Luck to Tim Smith. Early in the second quarter, Houston increased its lead to 14-0, mounting an 80-yard march culminating in a one-yard Campbell sweep. The Dolphins sliced their deficit when a 22-yard Dan Marino to Joe Rose completion and a 22-yard pass interference penalty (intended for Dan Johnson) set up Andre Franklin's TD. Following the opening kickoff, Strock led the team on a seven-play, 69-yard TD drive highlighted by a 17-yard completion to Nat Moore with the score coming on a 29-yard touchdown toss to Mark Duper. The Jets equalized later in the quarter on an 88-yard march that featured a 19-yard pass interference penalty and a 25-yard pass from Richard Todd to Johnny "Lam" Jones before Todd hit Freeman McNeil with a 20-yarder for the score. A pair of interference calls (25, 35 yards) set up the Dolphins' go-ahead touchdown, a two-yard Strock to David Overstreet toss. New York knotted the score at 14 midway through the third quarter with Todd completions to Kenny Lewis (23 yards) and Mickey Shuler (17 yards) paving the way for McNeil's 4-yard halfback pass to Marion Barber. Following the ensuing kickoff, Miami went ahead to stay on Uwe von Schamann's 49-yard field goal. A 17-yard Strock to Duper completion and Overstreet's 18-yard ramble set up von Schamann's 20-yard three-pointer to put Miami up 20-14 early in the final quarter. That set the stage for heroics from fourth-year safety Kozlowski. In a span of 61 seconds, "Koz" intercepted two Todd passes and returned them both for touchdowns (35, 38 yards). Kozlowski thus became the 13th player in NFL history to turn that trick in a single game.

1970 AFC PLAYOFF Raiders Sink Dolphins With 82-Yard Bomb OAKLAND 21, MIAMI 14

OAKLAND, DEC. 27 — Quarterback Daryle Lamonica unloaded an 82-yard touchdown pass to Rod Sherman with 9:34 to play as Oakland spoiled the Dolphins' first appearance in the playoffs, 21-14, on a field oozing with mud.

The Dolphins, who had won six consecutive games to finish 10-4 and gain a wild-card berth, had taken a 7-0 lead in the second quarter when Bob Griese fired a 16-yard strike to Paul Warfield in the end zone. Lamonica matched that TD with a 22-yard toss to Fred Biletnikoff only 1:50 before halftime.

Raider right cornerback Willie Brown intercepted a wet and wobbly pass by Griese and fled 50 yards along the sideline for the tie-breaking TD. It came minutes after Jake Scott recovered an Oakland fumble at the Miami 10-yard line.

The heave to Sherman was insurance. Only three plays earlier, Dolphin kicker Garo Yepremian missed a 24-yard field-goal attempt for the second time in the game. Oakland's George Blanda also missed a 23-yarder.

1971 AFC PLAYOFF Dolphins Outlast Chiefs In Longest Game MIAMI 27, KANSAS CITY 24

KANSAS CITY, DEC. 25 — Garo Yepremian ended 82 minutes and 40 seconds of an epic struggle by thumping a 37-yard field goal with 7:40 elapsed in the second overtime, lifting the Dolphins past Kansas City, 27-24, on Christmas Day.

The Dolphins battled from behind three times to tie the AFC West champions, the third time on Bob Griese's five-yard pass to tight end Marv Fleming with 96 seconds remaining in regulation.

Kansas City running back Ed Podolak, who amassed 350 yards of all-purpose running, returned the ensuing kickoff 78 yards to the Dolphin 22 where Curtis Johnson made a desperation tackle. With 35 seconds on the clock, Jan Stenerud missed a 32-yard field-goal try.

Stenerud had a 42-yarder blocked by Nick Buoniconti in the fifth quarter, and Yepremian was short with a 45-yard effort. But Larry Csonka crashed 29 yards to the Chiefs 36, and that put Yepremian, the NFL's scoring leader, in position to win it. Goal posts were on the goal line; in 1974 the uprights were moved to the end line.

1971 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP Anderson, No-Names Stymie Colts MIAMI 21, BALTIMORE 0

MIAMI, JAN. 2, 1972 — Three lightning plays and a persistent defense propelled the Dolphins into Super Bowl VI with a 21-0 rout of Baltimore before an all-time Orange Bowl record crowd of 78,939.

Strong safety Dick Anderson intercepted a John Unitas pass which was deflected by Curtis Johnson, and behind a wall of six open-field blocks, Anderson weaved 62 yards for a third-quarter touchdown. "My eyes were popping as I ran," Anderson said. "I've never seen so many people land on their heads."

Before Anderson's convoy made it 14-0, the Dolphins staggered the defending Super Bowl champions when Bob Griese and Paul Warfield hooked up for a 75-yard TD pass. Warfield applied the clincher when he escaped 50 yards with a Griese pass, setting up a five-yard TD slam by fullback Larry Csonka.

The Colts hadn't been held scoreless for 97 games over seven seasons. They were stopped at the Dolphin 9 in the second quarter. Jim O'Brien missed two field-goal attempts and had another blocked by Lloyd Mumphord.

SUPER BOWL VI Cowboys Flatten Luckless Dolphins DALLAS 24, MIAMI 3

NEW ORLEANS, JAN. 16, 1972 — A 252-yard rushing attack and sharp passing by Roger Staubach spurred the Dallas Cowboys to a 24-3 victory over the Dolphins at Tulane Stadium.

Duane Thomas pranced 95 yards on 19 carries, fullback Walt Garrison added 74 yards on 14 carries and Staubach passed twice for touchdowns to Lance Alworth and Mike Ditka. Staubach, who was sacked twice in the first quarter, bounced back to complete 12 of 19 passes, and he scrambled from the Dolphin pass rush five times.

The Dolphins were frustrated all day; in the first quarter, Larry Csonka lost a fumble and Bob Griese was chased by tackle Bob Lilly for a 29-yard loss. Griese fumbled away a snap at the Dallas 16 in the fourth period.

Although it was an intriguing 10-3 at halftime, the Cowboys marched 71 yards in seven plays after kickoff, and Thomas swept three yards for the TD.

1972 AFC PLAYOFF

Late TD Drive Rescues Unbeaten Dolphins MIAMI 20, CLEVELAND 14

MIAMI, DEC. 24 — On the ropes in the fourth quarter after an unprecedented 14 victories, the Dolphins responded to poised Earl Morrall and drove 80 yards for a touchdown with 4:56 to play for a 20-14 victory over the Cleveland Browns.
 Morrall, the NFL's leading passer as he replaced injured Bob Griese 10 weeks earlier, had completed only four passes for 38 yards. But he threw 15 and 35 yards to Paul Warfield, reaching the Browns' 20, and a pass interference call against linebacker Billy Andrews put the ball at the 8.
 Halfback Jim Kiick then bulled eight yards up the middle on a trap for the winning points. The triumph was sealed with a minute to play when linebacker Doug Swift intercepted quarterback Mike Phipps at the Dolphin 20.
 Despite stealing five of Phipps' passes, the Dolphins were stung by a 27-yard TD pass to Fair Hooker and trailed, 14-13 with 8:11 to play.

1972 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP Griese Comes Off Bench to Rally Win MIAMI 21, PITTSBURGH 17

PITTSBURGH, DEC. 31 — Quarterback Bob Griese, playing 11 weeks after he had broken his right leg, ignited a third-quarter touchdown drive with a 52-yard pass to Paul Warfield, and the Dolphins overtook the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-17, in unusually warm 63-degree weather.

Griese was given the nod in the second half after Earl Morrall had flipped a nine-yard touchdown pass to Larry Csonka for a 7-7 halftime deadlock. Punter Larry Seiple broke loose on a daring 37-yard run to set up that TD.

Trailing 10-7, Griese directed TD drives of 80 and 49 yards with Jim Kiick blasting two and three yards for the scores. Steeler quarterback Terry Bradshaw, who closed the gap with four straight completions on a 71-yard TD drive, was intercepted by Nick Buoniconti at midfield with 2½ minutes to play.

In addition to Seiple's dash, the Dolphins converted fourth-down situations on both Griese-led drives.

SUPER BOWL VII

Dolphins Achieve Perfection in 17th Win MIAMI 14, WASHINGTON 7

LOS ANGELES, JAN. 14, 1973 — "This is the ultimate," Coach Don Shula said quietly after his unbeaten Dolphins dominated the Washington Redskins, 14-7, to cap a perfect season. It was Shula's first Super Bowl triumph in three tries.

A record Super Bowl crowd of 90,182 saw the Dolphins surge to a 14-0 halftime lead even as one touchdown was nullified by an offside penalty. Miami intercepted three of Bill Kilmer's passes, and Manny Fernandez scuttled the Redskin running game with 17 tackles.

An original Dolphin, Howard Twilley, eluded cornerback Pat Fischer to snare a 28-yard touchdown pass from Bob Griese in the first quarter. Griese's 57-yard TD bomb to Paul Warfield was erased by the penalty, but a 32-yard interception return by linebacker Nick Buoniconti set up the Dolphins' second score.

Safety Jake Scott thwarted Kilmer with an end zone interception and 55-yard runback. The Redskins finally scored on a bizarre 49-yard fumble recovery by Mike Bass after a blocked field goal and attempted pass by kicker Garo Yeapremian. Scott was named MVP.

1973 AFC PLAYOFF Stout Defense Cages Bengals MIAMI 34, CINCINNATI 16

MIAMI, DEC. 23 — A defense which had allowed only 15 touchdowns all season kept the Cincinnati Bengals out of the end zone while the Dolphins hammered 241 yards on the ground for a convincing 34-16 victory.

Mercury Morris scooted 106 yards on 20 carries and Bob Griese completed 11 of 18 passes including TDs of 13 yards to Paul Warfield and seven yards to Jim Mandich. Garo Yeapremian converted long field goals of 50 and 46 yards in the second half to widen the winning margin.

The Dolphins led 21-3 when a lapse just before halftime gave life to the Bengals. Safety Neal Craig intercepted Griese and returned 45 yards for a score, and Horst Muhlman booted field goals for 46 and 12 yards — the second coming after Morris fumbled a kickoff — to make it 21-16.

1973 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP Dolphins Grind Raiders With 266 Rushing MIAMI 27, OAKLAND 10

MIAMI, DEC. 30 — A relentless running attack with Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris accounting for 203 of the 266 yards powered the Dolphins to a 27-10 triumph over the Oakland Raiders for a third straight American Conference title.
Csonka, a 237-pound battering ram who had his third consecutive 1,000-yard season, scored three touchdowns with his 117 yards on 29 carries. The Dolphins covered 64 and 63 yards exclusively on the ground for a 14-0 halftime lead.
Then as the Raiders battled within 17-10, Bob Griese directed ground assaults of 63 yards culminating in a field goal and 40 yards ending in Csonka's third TD.
Defensively, safety Dick Anderson forced a fourth-down fumble by Marv Hubbard at midfield, and the Dolphins took possession with a 20-10 lead and six minutes to play. Oakland had stopped Miami's 218-game winning streak, 12-7, three months earlier.

SUPER BOWL VIII Dolphins Demolish Vikings MIAMI 24, MINNESOTA 7

HOUSTON, JAN. 13, 1974 — Winning for the 32nd time in 34 games, the Dolphins repeated as Super Bowl champions and proved themselves "Best Ever" with a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings at Rice Stadium.
There was no doubt from the beginning. The Dolphins swept 62 yards in 10 plays with the opening kickoff, scoring on Larry Csonka's five-yard smash. Minnesota punted, and the onslaught resumed with a 56-yard, 10-play Dolphin drive capped by Jim Kiick's one-yard plunge.
It was 17-0 before the Vikings crossed their 40, and a fourth-down fumble by Oscar Reed was recovered by safety Jake Scott at the Dolphin six-yard line.
A brilliant, diving catch by Paul Warfield netted 27 yards on a third-quarter TD drive that hiked it to 24-0. Csonka finished with his best-ever total of 145 yards on 33 carries. The Dolphins rushed for 703 yards and outscored opponents, 85-33, in the three-game playoff blitz. Csonka gained a Super Bowl record 145 yards and was named MVP.

1974 AFC PLAYOFF Dream of 'Triple Crown' Shattered OAKLAND 28, MIAMI 26

OAKLAND, DEC. 21 — Oakland quarterback Ken Stabler, falling in the clutches of Vern Den Herder, unloaded a wobbly eight yard pass that Clarence Davis wrested from three defenders in the end zone, and the Raiders scored a stunning 28-26 victory over the defending champion Dolphins.
Stabler, who had spent the last of his timeouts, appeared to have thrown an interception. But running back Davis clutched the football when bodies were untangled with 26 seconds remaining.
It was the fourth TD pass for lefthander Stabler and his second "freak" score. Four minutes earlier, Cliff Branch fell while catching a pass at the Dolphin 27, but defender Henry Stuckey also slipped, and Branch got up and escaped for a 72-yard TD.
The Dolphins, trailing by two points, went ahead with 2:08 remaining as rookie Benny Malone broke two tackles on a 23-yard touchdown run along the sideline.

1978 AFC "WILD-CARD" PLAYOFF Oilers Jolt Erring Dolphins HOUSTON 17, MIAMI 9

MIAMI, DEC. 24 — The Houston Oilers amassed a 455-209 margin in total yardage and, aided by five Dolphin turnovers, gained a 17-9 victory in a battle of AFC "wild-card" entries at the Orange Bowl.
Toni Fritsch kicked a 35-yard field goal with 7:25 remaining to snap a 7-7 tie that existed since the first quarter. An interception by linebacker Greg Bingham led to a clinching 50-yard touchdown drive capped by Earl Campbell's one-yard dive with 1:55 to go. Campbell, the NFL rushing leader with 1,450 yards as a rookie, had been checked for only 16 yards on 13 carries in the first half.
Dolphin quarterback Bob Griese, playing with very sore ribs, connected with tight end Andre Tillman for a 13-yard TD after Earnest Rhone had recovered a fumbled punt at the Houston 21. But Griese completed only 13 of 28 passes. Twice the Dolphins lost the ball inside the Oiler 10-yard line when the game was tied.
Houston's Dan Pastorini wore a flak jacket to protect three broken ribs, and he passed for 261 of his 306-yard total in the first half.

1979 AFC PLAYOFF Steelers Blitz Dolphins in First Quarter PITTSBURGH 34, MIAMI 14

PITTSBURGH, DEC. 30 — Launching a drive to their fourth Super Bowl title in six years, the Pittsburgh Steelers scored touchdowns on their first three possessions and coasted to a 34-14 victory at Three Rivers Stadium.

Miami managed only 25 yards rushing against the Steel Curtain and was stopped twice in the second quarter after achieving a first down inside the Steeler 10-yard line. The Dolphins got as close as 20-7 with a seven-yard TD pass from Bob Griese to Duriel Harris in the third period, but Pittsburgh responded with a 69-yard TD drive.

The Steelers marched 62, 62 and 56 yards for their first-quarter scores when quarterback Terry Bradshaw completed 8 of 10 passes including touchdowns to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, who was standing alone in the end zone.

Don Strock directed a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive after relieving Griese in the fourth quarter.

1981 AFC PLAYOFF Chargers Survive Dolphins' Comeback SAN DIEGO 41, MIAMI 38

MIAMI, JAN. 2, 1982 — A record-setting showcase of the passing game resulted in NFL playoff marks for most points (79), most total yards (1,036) and most drama as the San Diego Chargers outlasted the Dolphins 41-38, in overtime.

"The Miracle That Died" was the Miami Herald headline after the Dolphins rallied behind reserve quarterback Don Strock to overcome a 24-point deficit. Strock completed 29 of 43 passes for 403 yards and four touchdowns, spurring the Dolphins to a 38-31 lead. A 12-yard sweep by Tony Nathan on the first play of the fourth quarter put the Dolphins on top. But Chargers' quarterback Dan Fouts, who passed for an NFL-record 4,802 yards during the season, led an 82-yard drive capped by a 9-yard pass to James Brooks to tie the game with 58 seconds remaining. Five players had more than 100 yards in receptions topped by Chargers' tight end Kellen Winslow with 13 catches for 166 yards.

Fouts, who finished with 433 yards on 33-of-53 marksmanship, hooked up with Charlie Joiner for 39 yards to the Dolphin 10-yard line. Rolf Benirschke then kicked a 29-yard field goal to end the struggle after 13:52 of overtime. Benirschke had missed a 27-yard attempt eight minutes earlier, and Miami's Uwe von Schamann had two attempts blocked — a 43-yarder on the last play of regulation and a 35-yarder after 11:27 of overtime.

It was the only game in NFL history in which two quarterbacks passed for more than 400 yards.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (First Round) Woodley Keys Dolphin Revenge MIAMI 28, NEW ENGLAND 13

Miami, Jan. 8, 1983 — For the first time in 9 years, the Miami Dolphins won a play-off game — defeating the New England Patriots 28-13. Dolphin QB David Woodley had one of his finest games, completing 16-of-19 passes for 246 yards and two TD's. He was a perfect 8-for-8 in the second half. The Dolphins, now 8-2 including this playoff game and winners of four straight, had not experienced a playoff win since January 13, 1974 when they downed Minnesota in Super Bowl VIII. The Dolphins took command in the second quarter gaining back-to-back TD drives of 76 and 79 yards that turned a 3-0 deficit into a 14-3 halftime advantage. The four Miami TD's came on a pair of two-yard passes from David Woodley to tight end Bruce Hardy, a one-yard run by Andra Franklin and Woody Bennett's two-yard burst up the middle. Franklin finished with 112 yards on 26 carries, but lost the ball three times on fumbles. Two of those fumbles resulted in John Smith field goals of 23 and 43 yards.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (Second Round) "Killer B's" Stymie Fouts and Co. MIAMI 34, SAN DIEGO 13

Miami, Jan. 16, 1983 — The Dolphins, on their way to a five game victory roll, choked off the famed Charger offense and won 34-13. The Dolphin defense stopped the San Diego Chargers' offense with a total 247 yards — 203 yards below their league-leading average, while holding their scoreless in the second half. Dolphin defenders intercepted QB Dan Fouts five times, sacked him three times and held the Chargers to 15 completions for 191 yards — their lowest output since last January's playoff game in the ice at Cincinnati. The Dolphins' offense kept Fouts and Company on the sideline utilizing ball control that produced 80 plays to San Diego's 54 and an overwhelming time of possession advantage. The Dolphins had the ball for 40:46; the Chargers for 19:14. Dolphins' QB David Woodley guided his team to a 214-yard ground attack while connecting on 17-22 passes for 195 yards and two TD's. Woodley opened the scoring with a three-yard pass to Nat Moore in the first quarter, and made it 14-0 by directing Miami 89 yards on 13 plays. Chargers' kickoff returner Hank Bauer fumbled a kickoff which was recovered by Uwe von Schamann at the Chargers' 23-yard line. Seven plays later Woodley hit tight end Ronnie Lee on a six-yard look-in pass for the score. On the next kickoff, Dolphins' rookie Rich Diana recovered a fumble by the Chargers' Brooks, but this time had to settle for a 29-yard von Schamann field goal. The Chargers scored two late TD's, one on a 28-yard pass to Charlie Joiner and the other on Chuck Muncie's one-yard dive that ended the Chargers' scoring. Von Schamann added a second field goal shortly before the end of the first half, and Woodley scored on a two-yard QB draw early in the fourth quarter.

1982 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP Dolphin Defense, Rain White-Wash Jets MIAMI 14, NEW YORK JETS 0

Miami, Jan. 23, 1983 — For the third time in as many games the Miami Dolphins defeated the New York Jets, this time on a rainy, mud soaked Orange Bowl field. The Dolphins set an AFC Championship game record by holding the Jets to 139 total yards. A.J. Duhe set an AFC playoff record with three interceptions including one he returned for a 35-yard TD. The Dolphins set an NFL record by being the first team to have defeated the same team three times in a season — two times during regular season and once in a playoff. On nine occasions since the leagues' merger, teams have met three times in a season — but no team has won all three games. Before a crowd of 67,396, the Dolphins' Woody Bennett rumbled seven yards up the middle to score the only points the Dolphins would need. That came in the third quarter, after the teams had slogged through a scoreless first half on the soggy Prescription Athletic Turf.

SUPER BOWL XVII Redskins' Riggins Runs Past Miami WASHINGTON 27, MIAMI 17

Pasadena, Jan. 30, 1983—The Washington Redskins, behind the power running of John Riggins, came from behind to win Super Bowl XVII in the famed Rose Bowl. Before the second largest crowd for a Super Bowl — 103,667 fans — the Redskins took the lead for the first time with a little more than ten minutes left on the playing clock. The game was marked by a Super Bowl record performance by Fulton Walker, who returned four kickoffs 190 yards, including a 98-yard TD that gave Miami a 17-10 halftime lead. It was the first kickoff returned for a TD in Super Bowl history and the longest kickoff return in playoff history. Riggins ran up 166 yards on 38 runs, both Super Bowl records. On a short-yardage play — fourth and one from the Redskins' 43 with 10:01 to play — Riggins broke a tackle and scored on a 43-yard run. Riggins accounted for 181 total yards, five more than the entire Miami offense could manage in the game. In the first quarter, Miami jumped to a quick lead with a 76-yard Woodley to Cefalo pass for a TD.

1983 AFC PLAYOFF Warner Keys Seahawk Upset SEATTLE 27, MIAMI 20

MIAMI, DEC. 31 — The Miami Dolphins saw 1983 and their season end on a sour note as they lost a 27-20 decision to the Seattle Seahawks in the semi-final round of the AFC playoffs. Before 71,032 fans in the Orange Bowl, Dolphin rookie quarterback Dan Marino returned from his December 4 knee injury. On their second possession, the Dolphins launched a 12-play, 80-yard drive ending with a 19-yard TD pass from Marino to tight end Dan Johnson (PAT missed). A 59-yard return by Zachary Dixon on the ensuing kickoff led to a six-yard scoring toss from Seattle's Dave Krieg to Cullen Bryant, with the extra point giving the Seahawks a one point lead. Miami immediately retaliated, using a 17-yard Marino to Mark Duper hook-up to pave the way for a 32-yard circus catch by Duper for the touchdown. Early in the third quarter, a David Overstreet fumble in Seahawk territory set Seattle up for a 55-yard TD march featuring a 28-yard completion from Krieg to Paul Johns, and culminating in a one-yard run by Curt Warner. Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter gave Seattle a 17-13 lead. The Dolphins managed to regain the lead at 20-17 following a Gerald Small interception (18-yard return) and Woody Bennett's two-yard punt with only 3:43 remaining. However, the lead was shortlived as the Seahawks came right back to score on Warner's short run following a pair of Krieg to Steve Largent completions for a total of 56 yards. Miami's Fulton Walker then fumbled the Seattle kickoff, thus leading to a 37-yard Johnson three-pointer. Another Walker kickoff fumble iced the game for the Seahawks, participating in the playoffs for the first time in their eight-year history.

DOLPHINS ON THE AIR

RADIO

In 1984, the Miami Dolphins' radio network will consist of 49 stations with Miami's WIOD (AM-610) again serving as the flagship station. WIOD has been the originator of Dolphin broadcasts since the team's 1966 inception. Known throughout South Florida as "Someplace Special For Sports," WIOD's Dolphin coverage is among the most comprehensive in the NFL. The station begins its game day coverage two hours before kickoff with "The Orange Bowl Express" including player features, key matchups in the upcoming game, plus other pertinent information from around the NFL. Also included in the pre-game package is "The Don Shula Show" featuring a preview of the day's contest by the Dolphins' head coach. Following the game, "The Locker Room Show" keeps listeners up-to-date on all other games around the league and also includes interviews from both the Dolphin and opposing locker rooms with the key players from that day's game.

Handling the play-by-play for his 14th season will be the "Voice of the Dolphins," Rick Weaver. A seasoned broadcaster with nationally-known credentials, Weaver is a nine-time recipient of the Florida Sportscenter of the Year award. Joining Weaver in the broadcast booth will be color commentator Hank Goldberg while Henry Barrow patrols the Dolphin sideline giving listeners up-to-the-minute reports on the day's action.
